

HUMBLE CITY CAFE

We are housed in the Pangburn Building, which was built in 1914. The Pangburn Building has been home to a Pharmacy, United State Post Office, Bus Stop, Grocery Store, the original "City Cafe" and many others.

Humble City Cafe` opened its doors in July of 1995. Tom Ott has owned the Pangburn Building since December of 1970. He believes in serving the freshest home cookin' with the friendliest service.

Humble City Cafe` also is home to a wonderful banquet hall. You will notice the original wood floors and pressed tin ceiling. Please remember to book any special events with us; if interested please ask to see the banquet hall.

Humble City Cafe can make the Holidays so easy by preparing a complete dinner for you. Please place your request for a holiday meal 10 days in advance.
